Pls review and advise what you want removed or added- this is to be shared with Ottawa city council at 4pm
Once you are good we will send it up to the Unified strategic command.

Thank you

Amy

Mayor and Members of Council,

We are here today to provide you a briefing on the plan of action that has already begun to end this occupation in our downtown core. unlawful protest

We are also here to answer questions from members of Council.

This morning, the command of the OPP, RCMP and Ottawa Police were briefed on the significant steps being taken to bring a safe end to this crisis.

The Ottawa Police remains the police of jurisdiction and lead of this integrated command. unlawful protest

This is the city we are sworn to protect. It's our responsibility and our job to safely remove this occupation. The RCMP and OPP are here to support us and I thank them for the significant efforts and resources they are bringing forward.

We have a methodical and well-resourced plan with a simple mission:

We are going to take back the entirety of the downtown core and every occupied space. We are going to remove this unlawful protest. We will return our city to a normal state.

Over the last few days we have developed strategies to deal with all possible scenarios.

We will be focused on public safety, demonstrator safety and officer safety. All of our plans and actions will be lawful and in line with the Charter.

Demonstrators must leave the area. Officers are already going truck to truck to advise them of this demand.

We want them to do this peacefully and immediately and we are facilitating the departure of anyone who wants to leave.

and methods

We also have appropriate, lawful ~~and deliberate techniques and escalations of use of force planned~~ to remove anyone who refuses.

We are also aware there are children in the area. This concerns us a great deal.

We have engaged a planning team and the Children's Aid Society to encourage anyone with children in the area to leave and bring those children to a safe place.

We also have a plan to ensure children are protected and cared for during any action.

You will be hearing and seeing these actions in the coming days.

It will take time to do this right. Every step will be considered and methodical. I ask for your patience and confidence.

Some of the techniques we are lawfully able and prepared to use are not what we are used to in Ottawa. But we are prepared to use them where necessary to bring about the safest outcome and restore order.

I am confident that we now have the resources, the plan, and the commitment to get the job done.

The plan will not be considered complete until such a time that the streets are cleared fully.

We have commitment from our partners that resources will remain in place until this objective is achieved.

There are many questions being asked about how we got here. We all know that there will be full review and we all welcome it so we can learn from the events of the last three weeks.

But for today and the days to come the Ottawa Police Service and our partners are focused on getting this job done.

I have spoken to our frontline officers and civilian members. We all know the personal toll this has taken on our residents, the impact on our businesses, the crimes that have been committed and the lawlessness we have all witnessed.

We know that this has left our residents feeling unsafe and abandoned and has tarnished our own reputation and that of our City. We deeply regret this.

Wherever those questions take us, I want you to know that the members of the Ottawa Police Service care about this city. They are committed to these actions and they are ready to go.

I am proud of them for all they have done and all that we will be doing in the days to come.

POU: Communications Plan for Unlawful Protest

Social/Digital Media & Public Information

OPS Corporate Communications will provide an ongoing twitter narration from 7 am to 2 am (or 24 hrs if needed). The intention of the ongoing twitter thread is to dispel mistruths and rumours members of the public may see on social media posts and various live feeds available throughout the city.

We are planning these active social media actions to reassure the public of police presence and visibility. This also provides a unique opportunity to offer real-time transparency to explain police actions underway as they develop throughout the coming days.

Proactive tweets reinforcing LRAD messaging to protestors will be repeated throughout. Messaging to demonstrators and to update the public will be updated as needed as this is an evolving and dynamic situation.

A post will be pinned to the top of the OPS twitter and facebook feeds directing people to the ongoing thread on twitter.

Twitter feed: @ottawapolice (primary feed)

Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/OttawaPoliceService>

Instagram: <https://www.instagram.com/ottawapolice/>

Beginning Friday, February 18, 2022

For optimal information and visibility of operations, Corporate Communications will begin the twitter thread when the first arrest and first truck has been towed, or otherwise told to begin. The thread will contain a running commentary of what people are seeing on the news with an approximate 10-15 min time delay (if necessary). However, careful consideration will be given to any information shared and there is a strong understanding of what is not appropriate for social media.

Social/Digital Media & Public Information

A dedicated media centre is established at Ottawa Police Service HQ at 474 Elgin Street in the front lobby.

It is recommended that media briefings occur twice daily by a member of POU who can speak to the shift they just came in from.

The intention of this is to be a real and authentic recap of the prior several hours.

The media centre will also serve as the location for any Unified Command press conferences.

@ottpolicemedia will tweet the time of the upcoming media availability. It is ideal to have set times, but these times will be determined by the operation.

Media Relations staff/officers are in the office at 474 Elgin to respond to media inquiries.
